Fuzzy Bones (Fuzzy Sapiens #4) by William Tuning

Little Fuzzy is a 1962 science fiction novel by H. Beam Piper, now in public domain. It was nominated for the 1963 Hugo Award for Best Novel. The story revolves around determining whether a small furry species discovered on the planet Zarathustra is sapient, and features a mild libertarianism that emphasizes sincerity and honesty. The book was followed by a sequel, Fuzzy Sapiens published in 1964, the same year that Piper committed suicide. In the wake of Piper's suicide, rumor spread of a lost
